Time Is Not On Israel's Side

Shah Abdul Halim

Can Israel protect itself from the popular Palestinian uprising and reprisal by using brutal force, military power, Western protection and Gobbles propaganda, this question is often been raised by the geo-political strategists and commentators. Several factors are not in Israel's favor. The most important factor is demographic. The birth rate of the Palestinian Muslims is much more than the Jews settled in Israel and within next 50 years the Muslim population will out number the Jews in the state of Israel (Ref. Globalization: A Contemporary Islamic Response by Ibrahim M. Abu Rabi in The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences. No.3. Vol. 15. 1998. Page-35. Published by IIIT, USA). Although Israel initially attracted diverse population from many corners of the world i.e. from Arab world, eastern Europe, former Soviet Union and Ethiopia, the majority of the Jews from West Europe and North America have so far shown no real intention of migrating to and living in Israel. Jews are reluctant to come to settle in Israel any more. The Russian Jews now prefer to settle in USA for a better living than settle in their dreamland Israel. This is because they no more feel secure in Israel. Israelis are now holding dual nationality. According to statistics provided by the Liberty for the Muslim World UK, an organization working for the protection of human rights and democratization, a million Jews have dual Israel-American citizenship and a huge number of South African Jews hold two passports and they are ready to leave Israel any moment as they feel insecure in violent ridden Zionist state. Constant conflict has destroyed their peace of mind and most of the Jews now consider Israel as the 'most dangerous place in the world for a Jew'. This has now become manifest from their behavior. Secondly, Israel depends on the US for its survival, both political and economic. With out US backing Israel cannot maintain the high standard of living of its population and the defense expenditure for its huge military arsenal. USA has its own problem and cannot support the Zionist state forever. At present 16 percent of Americans live in poverty and it is doubtful how long US shall be willing to support Israel with billions of US dollar although USA has heavily supported Israel through financial aid with perennial aid packages continuously, over $ 3 billion per annum. No super power can survive by spending on armaments ignoring its own population. The erstwhile Soviet Union is the glaring example. Thirdly, Israel cannot win a long drawn conventional war with the Arabs and she is not in a position to use nuclear weapons in any regional conflict between her and the neighboring Arab states as such a strike would effect Israel in the same manner as Beirut, Damascus, Amman and Cairo which all fall within a radius of 250 miles of Tel Aviv. Furthermore, Israel is situated in close proximity to Saudi Arabia, Cyprus and Turkey and any use of nuclear weapons would have an adverse effect on her as also these countries and permanently close the door of peace and lasting settlement of conflict in the region. Finally, the US would not possibly agree with the Israel to use nuclear weapons as it would threaten the vital economic interest of the West in the region and likely to bear upon Israel all the economic, political and military influence deterring her from such disastrous action. US has substantial investment in the region and should its interest ever be threatened or should there ever be a conflict between the permanent interests of the USA in the Middle East and the existence of Israel, America would undoubtedly forgo the latter for sheer self-interest. Control over the Middle East and its vital resources are essential in maintaining American dominance worldwide. Israel is surely aware of the dictum: (States) have no perpetual friends only perpetual interests. Will Israel come to its sense and take lesson from the history? *

Jewels of Al-Quran

Let those (believers) who sell the life of this world for the Hereafter fight in the Cause of Allah and whoso fights in the Cause of Allah and is killed or gets victory, We shall bestow on him a great reward. And what is the wrong with you that you fight not in the Cause of Allah and for those weak, ill-treated and oppressed among men, women and children whose cry is: Our Lord- rescue us from this town whose people are oppressors; and raise for us from You one who will protect and raise for us from You one who will help. [Surat An Nisa (4): 74 -75]

Gems from Al-Hadith

The Messenger of Allah said: If a Muslim forsakes another Muslim without help (or support) in a place where his dignity is attacked and his honor is violated, God shall deny him His help when he will want such aid... (And) If a Muslim comes to the aid of another Muslim when his dignity and honor are attacked, God shall help him when he wants His aid [Narrated by Abu Jabir ibn Abdullah in Sunan Abu Daud]

Quotable Quotes

'An Islamic Movement, we must be critical in assessing our strategies. Our activities and efforts must be reviewed in order to be relevant with the current changes.....Islamic Movements should not make their primary goal to assume power in the government. Taking over the government does not necessarily mean the biggest achievement of the struggle. The bigger success would be when the society loves Islam and respects its leaders...Islamic activists must prepare themselves with the correct knowledge and relevant skill so that they will be able to apply wisdom in carrying out effective and efficient Dawah activities'. Sheikh Rashid Ghannoushi [Islamic Review (Malaysia)].

Question & Answer

How does Islam view obedience to dictatorial rulers?

[Raisuddin Khan, Malaysia]

Blind obedience to dictators in which human does not use his God given intellect to search for the truth about The Lord who is alone worthy of worship, is also considered to be a form of shirk by Islam. In blindly obeying a dictator who oppresses and refuses to submit himself to the commands of the God, the human is in fact treating the dictator as if he has higher authority than God. In the Qur'an rulers who refuse to judge and act according to the law of God – whether they call themselves 'Muslim' or not – are called 'unbelievers and rebels' and therefore they should not be accorded blind obedience in derogation of obedience to God. It is for this reason that throughout history, Muslims have, and will continue to oppose rulers who command obedience even though they themselves rule in a way that is contrary to Islamic teachings. In Islam there is no concept of 'rendering to Caesar what is Caesar's and rendering to God what is God's' every thing must be rendered unto God first.

Editorial

Ramadan Mubarak. This issue of The Window shall be at your hand when you are fasting InshaAllah. The month of Ramadan is especially important in the life of every Muslim for the Holy Quran was revealed in this month for the guidance of humankind and Jinns. Let us all therefore make sincere endeavor to derive best benefit out of the teachings of Al Quran by striving to understand the inner meaning of the text of the Holy Quran and implementing those in our life and society. We must fetch all the benefit by observing Siam, which is indeed a great instrument of training for the workers of Dawah. Siam is a great tool for controlling our passion and anger and a blessing from Allah (SWT). The purpose of fasting is to arouse among us deep realization about the pangs and agony of the poverty stricken brothers and sisters and create compassion and fellow feelings. We should therefore make best effort to stand beside the deprived and neglected members of the society by extending Sadakah in addition to paying the compulsory Zakah. Let all of us work to remove poverty and let the coming Eid-ul-Fitr be an occasion of joy and happiness for all of us. A'min. Eid Muba'arak.
